Ensalada

One of the 10 Great Places to Make a Meal Out of a Salad

The Original "1905" Salad™

The Columbia's legendary salad tossed at your table. Crisp Iceberg lettuce with julienne of baked ham, natural Swiss cheese, tomato, olives, grated Romano cheese and our famous garlic dressing. The award-winning salad won honors from the nation's largest newspaper, USA Today, as "One of 10 Great Places to Make a Meal Out of a Salad" in May, 2008. The signature salad, named after the year the restaurant was founded in Tampa's Latin district of Ybor City, was created by using native ingredients from the homeland of immigrants to the Cigar City and grown in the surrounding farm rich lands of Tampa ... beefsteak tomatoes from Ruskin, iceberg lettuce (originally known as Crisphead got its name from the layers of ice covering the heads of lettuce as they were shipped by Henry B. Plant's train. As the train pulled up, folks would yell out "here come the icebergs!"), julienne of baked ham, Swiss cheese, Romano cheese from the Sicilians and the famous garlic dressing used by Cubans to marinate fresh roast pork. In the 40's, Tony Noriega, who ventured to New York City during the depression to find work, added the "secret ingredient," Worcestershire sauce, to the recipe. 9.95

Tapas

Tapas, pronounced [TAH-pahs], are popular throughout Spain in bars and restaurants. Tapas usually accompany a glass of sherry or other Aperitifs. Simply put, they are appetizers. Together they can form an entire meal, ranging from simple items such as olives or croquettes to more elaborate preparations like mussels in a spicy sauce.

The Cuban Bread The first loaf of Cuban bread was probably created in Ybor City in 1896 at the "Joven Bakery" by the owner, a Sicilian, Francisco Ferlita. La Segunda Central, today Tampa's premier bakery for the best Cuban bread, was started in 1915 by Juan Morè. One of his first customers was the Columbia and today the Morè family is still providing the same great bread to the Columbia for over 90 years. A traditional loaf of Cuban bread is about three feet long and rectangular in shape. The crust of the bread is hard and thin, almost papery, toasted with a soft, delicate dough in the middle. The loaf is stretched long with a moist, long palm frond laid down the middle creating a shallow trench in the upper crust. The Cuban bread found in Tampa is unique and different than what you might sample in Miami and Cuba; It really should be called Tampa bread.

Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio frequented the Columbia in the early 1950's. The story goes that one evening Marilyn sought counsel from our ladies' room attendant, Lula Mae Tollaman, after getting into a mixed up discussion with Joe. We created this featured salteado to recall that occasion, a mixture of tenderloin tips, boneless breast of chicken, shrimp and pork all sautéed in a hot skillet of extra virgin Spanish olive oil, Spanish onions, green peppers, mushrooms, diced potatoes, chorizo, garlic and splashed with red wine to blend the flavors together. Served with yellow rice. 21.95

Flan

We think our Flan is the best we have ever tasted. One taste and we think you will agree. The recipe dates back to 1935 when the Columbia opened Tampa's first "Conditioned Air" dining room, the Don Quixote. Our grandmother and great grandmother, Carmen Hernandez, helped the Columbia gain national fame with her great recipes especially her Flan, Spanish caramel egg custard, prepared the old-fashioned way, using only the best natural ingredients. 4.95

Guava Turnover "Carmita"

Carmen Hernandez baked this dessert for our family on Sundays at her home. One taste of the tropical sweet guava and melted sweet cream cheese baked in a soft crispy pastry, dusted with sugar granules, drizzled with vanilla bean sauce, and you will understand why it was our favorite dessert. 6.95

Brazo Gitano "Cien Años"

100th Anniversary version of the original recipe from Casimiro Hernandez, Sr, founder of the Columbia Restaurant. Spongecake soaked in syrup with Spanish Manzanilla Sherry filled with Spanish cream and strawberries, rolled and topped with meringue. Served tableside with strawberry sauce and flambéed. 6.95

White Chocolate Bread Pudding

Our dad and grandfather's favorite dessert, simply put, this is the best bread pudding that we have tasted anywhere we have ever visited. Our version is made with white chocolate, La Segunda Central Bakery Cuban bread, Sunny Florida Dairy milk and Florida eggs, topped with a rich Don Casimiro Classic Silver rum sauce. 7.95

Godiva Chocolate Cake

Dark chocolate cake layered and topped with chocolate mousse and drizzled with caramel sauce. Served with seasonal berries. 6.95

Key Lime Pie

The original Key lime pie recipe was thought to have been created in Key West, the birthplace of our grandmother and great grandmother, Carmen Piloto Hernandez in the late 19th century. When the family moved to Ybor City, they brought a prized Key lime tree to plant at their home, beginning a tradition of enjoying fresh Key lime pie at family gatherings. Today our pies start with a secret graham cracker crust, and our filling is made from pasteurized eggs yolks, condensed milk and "Nellie & Joe's" Key lime juice. That's it! No preservatives, no artificial ingredients and no gelatin, just the best tasting Key lime pie anywhere! Key lime pie is the "Official Pie of the State of Florida." 6.95

Ensalada

One of the 10 Great Places to Make a Meal Out of a Salad The Original "1905" Salad™

The Columbia's legendary salad tossed at your table. Crisp Iceberg lettuce with julienne of baked ham, natural Swiss cheese, tomato, olives, grated Romano cheese and our famous garlic dressing. The award-winning salad won honors from the nation's largest newspaper, USA Today, as "One of 10 Great Places to Make a Meal Out of a Salad" in May, 2008. The signature salad, named after the year the restaurant was founded in Tampa's Latin district of Ybor City, was created by using native ingredients from the homeland of immigrants to the Cigar City and grown in the surrounding farm rich lands of Tampa ... beefsteak tomatoes from Ruskin, iceberg lettuce (originally known as Crisphead got its name from the layers of ice covering the heads of lettuce as they were shipped by Henry B. Plant's train. As the train pulled up, folks would yell out "here come the icebergs!"), julienne of baked ham, Swiss cheese, Romano cheese from the Sicilians and the famous garlic dressing used by Cubans to marinate fresh roast pork. In the 40's, Tony Noriega, who ventured to New York City during the depression to find work, added the "secret ingredient," Worcestershire sauce, to the recipe. 9.95
